

Height of bar conveys the count of each category or the value of a second variable.

